

A NEW VIEW OF THE MOON

<https://youtu.be/XCrJ3NfIOpE>

Before watching

1. In pairs, describe how you feel when...

- you see the sun rise or set.
- smell bread in the oven
- reach the top of a very high mountain
- sit in a traffic jam for an hour
- find a spider in your house
- look up and see the full moon

2 You are going to watch a video with these words, expressions and slang. Match them to the meanings.

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1 apartment | a. place next to the road to walk (pavement in British English) |
| 2 sidewalk | b. joining people together |
| 3 check out | c. flat (more common in British English) |
| 4 edge | d. very strong or extreme |
| 5 bro' | e. US expression to say something is true in response to 'No way' |
| 6 Yes way | f. large hole in rocky landscape |
| 7 crater | g. the outside limit of an object or surface |
| 8 intense | h. find out more or inform yourself |
| 9 unifying | i. friendly way to talk to a male person (US slang) |

While watching

3 Watch the video and answer the questions.

- 1 Why did the man decide to take telescope out to the sidewalk?
- 2 What started to happen very quickly?
- 3 What can the women with glasses see on the moon?
- 4 Where does the moon look like it is, according to the man in the white shirt?
- 5 What does the man with the telescope think we should do more often? Do you agree with him? Why/Why not?

4 Watch again and tick the expressions you hear.

- | | | | | |
|------------|------------------------------|------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| No way! | Isn't that awesome? | That is so cool! | What? | That is incredible! |
| Fantastic! | I've never seen this before! | Really? | Isn't that amazing? | Wow! |

5 What do you notice about the typical intonation pattern on the expressions. Does it...?

- a. Fall and then rise.
- b. Rise and then fall.

After watching

6 Write down three pieces of surprising news. The news can be true or untrue.

7 In pairs, take turns to say your news and use expressions with the correct intonation to show surprise.